NUMBER 17.

FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. - SENATE The first ession of the senate after the holiday recess occupied only 14 minutes, although in that brief time two open sessions and an executive session were held. The galleries were filled with spectators before the senate convened. the general expectation being that the peace sem, called the senate to order. Mr. Fryc. who this country to expect was in the chair, immediately recognized Maj. of the peace treaty. Prudens, assistant secretary to the president who presented a message from the president of the United States. The message contained the treaty of Paris. On motion of Mr. Davis the enate then went into executive session order that the treaty might be referred to he committee on foreign relations. HOUSE—The house spent Wednesday con-idering the bill to define and punish crimes in Alaska and provide a code of criminal procedure for the territory. Sixty-seven pages were completed Wednesday and the bill was made a continuing order until disposhd of, not however, to interfere with appropriation bills or other special orders. The house adjourned out of respect to the memory of the late Sen-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 - SENATE-Little business, except that of a routine character, was transacted by the senate Thursday. A resolution offered by Mr. Hoar (Mass), directing the committee on foreign relations to report to the senate whether the treaty of Paris makes any provision for the claims of citizens of the United States against Spain which were in existence before the present war and the status of such claims after the ratification of the treaty, was adopted. Mr. Caffery (La.) continued and practically con-cluded his speech begun before the holiday recess in opposition to the pending Nicaragu

House-g'he judiciary committee had the right of way in the house for three hours Thursday and quite a number of bills of minor importance reported from the committee were passed. The remainder of the day was occupied in continuing the consideration of the bill pages were disposed of, making 83 in all. A section in the bill copied from the statutes of Oregon, providing punishment by fine and imprisonment of persons who prevent or endeavor to prevent employes from working, aroused a protracted debate on the ground that it was an attack on debate on the ground that it was an attack on organized labor. It was finally stricken out. The following bills called up by the judiciary committee were passed: To provide additional circuit judges for the Third and Sixth judicial districts, to regulate the terms of court in the eastern district of Tennessee and the district of Butte, Mont.: to amend the revised statutes so as to allow the United States five perputory chalappointed guardians of insane persons to pros-ecute patent claims and to release the International Cotton Press Co., of New Orleans, four habitty for $3,408 of laternal resemblaces. WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—SENATE—Immediate ly after the senate convened Friday the resolution offered Thursday by Mr. Hoar (Mass. calling on the president for imformation as to the instructions of the commissioners who negotiated the treaty at Paris together with their work, was laid before the senate. Chairmsn Davis, one of the commissioners desired that it be referred to the foreign relations committee, but Mr. Hoar insisted that the senate had as much right to such information as the members of the for eign relations committee and that the presi dent should determine whether the senate should have it. The resolution was adopted in secret session. In support of the resolution offered some time ago by Mr. Vest (Missouri) in opposition to expansion, Mr. Caffery (Louisiana) delivered an extended half of the Nicaragua canal committee, the ac-speech. At the conclusion of Mr. Caffery's argument Mr. Morgan (Ala.) announced on beceptance in a modified form of the amendments offered by Mr. Berry before the holidays to the pending canal bill. The amendments were not passed upon by the senate. House—The anti-civil service reformers scored a victory in the house Friday. The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was taken up for consideration, and when the appropriation for the civil service commission was reached, Mr. Evans (rep., Ky.) made a motion to strike it out. The motio to strike out carried by a nar row majority. This was in committee of the whole, where no record is made of the vote. Mr. Moody (rep., Mass.), gave notice that he would demand a record vote in the house where the friends of the civil service law expect to reverse the decision. Those who advocated the motion to strike out were Messrs. Evans (rep., Ky.), Grosvenor (rep. O.), Hepburn (rep., Ia.), Linney (rep., N. C.), Brown (rep., 10.), and Marsh (rep., Ill). Its opponents were Messrs. Moody Mass.), Hopkins (rep., Ill.), Fleming Ga.), Brosius (rep., Pa.), Henderson (rep., Ia.) and Bolliver (rep., Ia.)

WASHINGTON, Jen. 10.-SENATE-Monday proved to be an interesting day in the senate the principal subject under discussion being his associates in the house, Mr. the constitutional right of the United States Lewis was anxious to serve in to carry into effect the policy of expansion. The leading speaker was Mr. Hoar (rep., Mass.), who delivered a speech in support of the resolution introduced by Mr. Vest (dem., Mo.). declaring it to be in opposition to the constitution for this country to acquire foreign territory to be governed permanently as colonies. Mr. Platt, at the conclusien of Mr. Hoar's address, briefly replied to some points of the speech which had been di- of colonel, believing that by so doing rected especially at him. Mr. Caffrey concluded his speech in opposition to the Nicaragua can I bill, but an effort to fix a time for a vote | house.

House-The house Monday reversed the decision of the committee of the whole last Friday when the appropriation for the support of the civil service commission was stricker out of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. In committee, where memcalled the appropriation was restored, the mo-tion to strike out being defeated 95 to 119. The house Monday by special order decided to proceed with the consideration of the naval perwere covered Monday, leaving almost 100 pages still undisposed of.

> When the question of American sovereignty in the Philippines was first suggested the European representatives of the Catholic church did not look with favor upon American control in those islands. That feeling has been wiped out by the provision in the peace treaty which provides for the free exercise of religion in the Philippines, as in Cuba and Puerto Rico. The treaty also contains a guarantee that the property in these islands belonging to the church shall not be taken from it by the United States government.

FORCE OF HABIT.

He Was Used to Standing in Street Cars and He Grabbed for the Straps.

It was at the Himbish-Mimmikin wed-

The crush was terrible. People with tender feet uttered half-suppressed groans here and there, and weak women would have fainted if there had been hope that fainting would have done the least good.

Ever and anon Burbank would make a frantic grab for something above his head, and then looked disappointed.

Lambert watched him reach up half a dozen times, and then edged his way through the crowd to where his friend s being josticd about.

Just as he got there somebody gave a urch somewhere, and the people began o sway about as they do in crowds where here are nervous or mischievous persons ho insist on pushing. Burbank was almost carried off his feet, Burbank was aimost carried on his feet, and he made a frantic effort to grasp the invisible something that he had previously endeavored to find above his head... "See here, old man," exclaimed Lambert, "what are you trying to find up there?" Burbank gave a start, as if he had just been aroused from a trance, looked sheep-jishly at his friend, and then realied:

ishly at his frier,d, and then repued:
"It's force of habit. This crowd makes me think, every little while, that I'm in a street car, and, involuntarily, I reach for the strap, shly at his friend, and then replied: whenever the people begin to lurch.'

She Was Taking No Chances.

The fast-flying elevator in a huge down-town office building hovered for an instant at the third floor, like an impatient and nonstrous bird, then, with a clang of the iron gates, flew upward and out of sight. The citizen from Sassafras Cross Roads turned fiercely to his wife.
"What made you hold me back, mether?"

"Why, Eben Dilly, who are you talking? Don't you stand there and jaw me!" "Well, you make me feel so foolish."
"Foolish, eh? Foolish! That's all the thanks a woman gits for bein' careful. You come down here to git your life insured, didn't ye?"

"Course I did."
"Ye ain't done it yet, hev ye?"
"Goin' to do it jest as soon as I kin git to that 'leventh floor."
"Yes! Well, when yo've done it ye can ride on all the elevators in creation if yo want to, but not till then."

THEY WANT TO TELL

These Grateful Women Who Have Been Helped by Mrs. Finkham.

Women who have suffered severely and been relieved of their ills by Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine are constantly urging publication of their statements for the benefit of other women. Here are two such letters: Mrs. LIZZIE BEVERLY, 258 Merrimac St., Lowell, Mass., writes:

"It affords me great pleasure to tell all suffering women of the benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I can hardly find words to express my gratitude for what she has done for me. My trouble was ulceration of the womb. I was under the doctor's care. Upon examination he found fifteen very large ulcers, but he failed to do me good. I took several bottlesof Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also used the Sanative

Wash, and am cured. Mrs. Pinkham's medicine saved my life, and I would recommend it to all suffering women." Mrs. Amos TROMBLEAY, Ellenburgh Ctr., N. Y., writes: "I took cold at the time my baby was born, causing me to have milk legs, and was sick in bed for eight weeks. Doctors did me no good. I surely thought I would die. I was also troubled with falling of the womb. I could not eat, had faint spells as often as ten times a day. One day a lady came to see me and told me of the benefit she had derived from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine, and advised me to try it. I did so, and had taken only half a bottle before I was able to sit in a chair. After taking three bottles I could do my own work. I am now in perfect health."

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Resolutions Adopted Thanking President Mckinley for Utterances in His Atlanta Speech and Elsewhere.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Jan. 6 .- At a meeting of the Henry M. Ashley bivouac of Confederate veterans, the foladopted:

1. That we extend our heartfelt thanks to noble and patriotic words uttered in his speeches at Atlanta and other poirs during his recent tour of the south.

2. That this bivouae pledge its hear & support to him in all measures, that look to the upholding of the country and the honor of the old flag.

3. That we are in no sense applicants for pension, that we believe the manhood of the south can be maintained without being put upon the pension rolls. 4. But if the people of the north should be-ome magnanimous enough to put our poor upon the pension payroll, we see no reason why we should not accept. 5. We rejoice that our common country is ruled by a man so broad minded and patriotic as William McKinley. We also rejoice that the south took such an active part in the late Spanish war, and we take especial pride in Joe Wheeler and Fitzhugh Lee.

He used to come every night and hang around outside the house, casting lover's glances at the windows. Finally he found out that his sweetheart had been discharged. He apparently kept away from the house thereafter, but his displeasure was made, abundantly mani-

The doctor's steps and areaway began to look nearly every morning like garbage dump. Decayed fruit and vegetables and dead cats were nightly deposited in the aren. Occasionally the doctor would find a fresh coat of green paint on his basement windows. Two weeks ago Policeman Gutnecht was detailed to watch the doctor's house, and the other night he saw a man coming along the street with a paint pot. He sneaked into the area of Dr. Bachman's house and began work on the basement windows. Gutnecht crept up on the man and caught him. "You wen't do any more painting," the officer cried. "Oh, I don't know," Patterson answered, and, swinging the paint brush, which he still had in his hand, he brought it down on the officer's face. With that the fight began. When they got through the policeman was green and the man was red, but the policeman was not green enough to let his prisoner go, and took him to the station-house, where he was identified as Miss Berry's former suitor. He was locked up.

QUEEN WILHELMINA.

The Young Sovereign Makes It Her Custom to Personally Inspect All Cabinet Business and Petitions.

That Queen Wilhelmina is determined not to be a simple figurehead in the government of the Netherlands has recently been evinced in numerous instances.

The officers of a prominent society of The Hague, having occasion to submit a new constitution for royal approval, were counseled by a lawyer to address themselves to the secretary of States Senator Lindsay represents the the ministry. As it is her majesty's custom to daily inspect the business before her cabinet and to confer with her ministers, she instructed the secreary to return the document to the society with the following notice for publication: "It is the expressed wish of her majhe has been convicted three times of esty, Queen Wilhelmina, that all business of importance and all requests for reyal aid shall be sent direct to her all three together constituting was hounces herewith that her subjects may has been termed "an habitual crim rest assured that all reasonable petirest assured that all reasonable petitions will receive her prompt consideration.
